Hi Ben,

Gross Weight: 32.6 g (Is the weight of the substance plus its container/packaging)
(weighing the sample and the plastic bag)

Net Weight: 27.6 g (Is the weight of the substance only)
(removing the plastic bag and just weighing the sample)

Hope this helps.

Ms. Dookah,

We spoke a few months ago about a [REDACTED] case referenced below. I have a question about the handwritten notes on the last page of the packet you sent. The first line says gross wt : 32.6, and then below it, it says something and then 27.6. Can you clarify what those 2 numbers on the last page are?

Thank you,
Ben Hirshfield

Thank for the heads up. I have several summons for that week, unfortunately, I do not know if they will go forward at this time.

I will send the discovery packet next week.

Thanks

Annie

Ms. Dookah,

I wanted to give you the heads up that a summons will be coming your way for a Jury Trial in Falmouth District Court on 10/18/11 for your analysis on [REDACTED]. Please let me know if that date doesn't work for you and I can reschedule the trial. Also, could you please send along the analysis packet for the above mentioned sample?

Thank you,
Ben Hirshfield
